

Yes, we need your help!

Libraries of Eastern Oregon (LEO) is the dynamic family of public libraries that provides services to residents of all ages and a wide range of exciting programs in the arts, sciences and humanities across Eastern Oregon.

LEO program partners are rather stellar!

Among them:

- Smithsonian American Art Museum
- Oregon Museum of Science and Industry
- Oregon Council for the Humanities
- Portland State University

Nearly all of the LEO libraries do not have funding for community programs in their annual budgets. In fact, many continue to operate at less than $17 per capita per year. LEO-supported programs are vital to educating communities in many Eastern Oregon libraries. Your support of LEO makes this possible.
